Student By Day Is Hobby; But WNAB Airs His Lobby

by Steve Tolkin and Ken Hawman

That suave, debonair voice you hear over station WNAB belongs to Wes Hobby, a UB journalism major. He is custodian of "Hobby's Lobby," a popular disc show heard weekdays from 4 to 6 P. M.

Wes came to UB in September to study journalism and public relations, with an eye aimed to a future in television.

A native of Bridgeport, he graduated from Bassick High School in 1946. Following a short course in radio broadcasting, he journeyed to Montpelier, Vt., and station WSKI. He rose to chief announcer at WSKI before the long arm of Uncle Sam summoned him to the service.

Since he had quite a bit of radio experience, he was naturally given a position in the Army appropos to his civilian job — Machine Gunner in an infantry outfit stationed in Germany! After a two-year hitch, he returned to Bridgeport and Station WICC as a staff announcer. He had his own disc and chatter show over WICC before joining the staff of WNAB last April.

Girls: Wes announces he is 25, single, prefers girls, likes very casual clothes, prefers girls to anything, likes turtle-neck sweaters, admires girls, thinks wool shirts are real george, loves girls, wears ties, only at weddings and funerals and — yes indeed, has a great interest in girls.

Wes has done shows with Johnny Amoroso, currently vocalizing with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra. Most recently, according to a local daily newspaper, he became an overnight "hero" by squealing a dangerous fire outside of the WNAB building and aiding in the capture of the culprit responsible. Wes claims it was all a mistake and, taking into consideration his great modesty, he is undoubtedly correct.

Fashion Gals Go To Cities To Work-Study

Four Fashion Merchandising majors will leave for their four week store training, Nov. 27. The second year students, who will work until Dec. 24, are filling their requirement for the sales course.

Shirley Jones and Rita Ostrosky will work at G. Fox in Hartford. Saks Fifth Avenue in New York, is the destination of Carol Connery and Lorraine Curley.

Men's cuff links, accessories and umbrellas, will be but some of the things our UB coeds will be selling.

Mrs. Mallner is the supervisor of this program. The group has taken buying trips to New York City, and is selling some of the merchandise they have picked out on campus.

Thanksgiving Just Ahead; Five Day Vacation Looms

Six days... 144 hours... 8,640 seconds to go — Thanksgiving recess officially begins upon completion of classes Tuesday. Classes will end (even if it is only for 5 short days) and dormitories will close at that time.

Books, term papers, classes may all be forgotten until Monday, Nov. 30 when school and classes will be back in session. Dormitories will re-open Sunday, Nov. 29 at 2 P. M., and breakfast will be served at Marina Hall, Monday, Nov. 30.

WEATHER REPORT:

Thunder To Strike Tomorrow; Will Reign For Three Evenings

by Lee Mekler

A bevy of UB's most glamorous women will provide the humorous touch to the 7th edition of Campus Thunder at the Klein Memorial tomorrow night at 8:30 P. M.

Alumni To Be Treated Royally; Gala Weekend Begins Friday

by Bobbi Crane

Homecoming Weekend, this weekend, will center around Campus Thunder and will bring a large number of alumni back to their Alma Mater. Many servicemen will be returning for the first time since their graduation.

Friday night, Campus Thunder will be unveiled at 8:30 P. M. Alpha Delta Omega will sponsor an informal "First Nighter" dance at Lenny's Wagon Wheel for students and alumni after Campus Thunder. Sigma Phi Alpha Alumni Association is planning a "Homecoming Hoedown" at Hickory Hill Hall in Stratford beginning at 8:30 P. M. the same evening. Refreshments and dancing will continue until 1 A. M.

Saturday at 2 P. M. the UB Soccer team will face Fordham at Seaside Park. At 4 P. M. a "punch party" for the alumni will be held in Alumni Hall, followed by a pre-Thunder supper at Marina Hall.

The Campus Thunder curtain will go up again at 8:30 Saturday evening in the Klein Memorial. After the performance, the alumni have been invited to the Knights of Thunder's cast party which will be held at Eichner's Restaurant in Bridgeport. There will be a buffet supper until 1 A. M. and dancing will continue until 3 A. M.

The University's Alumni Relations Office, headed by Mrs. Betty Jensen, has also made overnight arrangements for the alumni that wish to remain until Sunday.

Top Students Selected For 'Who's Who'

By Ivan Schaeffer

Abby Elstein and Katy Boyhen have been nominated for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Abby is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences and is majoring in French, while Katy is a junior in the College of Nursing and is at Bridgeport Hospital.

Nominations for Who's Who, a student must be on the Dean's List and hold, or have held, many positions in recognized organizations on campus. After a student has met these qualifications the student is nominated by the Student Council which sends the name to Who's Who.

Both girls have 3.5 cumulative quality point ratios. Abby is a member of the chorus, president of the French Club, member of Theta Epsilon sorority, Phi Theta Kappa and Aristeia, both of which are honor societies, as well as other offices in these organizations.

Katy is a member of the Political Relations Forum and has been a delegate to the Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature, Health Commissioner on Bridgeport Day, member of Phi Theta Kappa, the national honor society, a participant in the Wistaria Pageant and junior class representative to the Nursing Student Council.

Sophs To Hold Open Hop Jan. 8, Glorieta Manor

For the first time in 27 years, the Sophomore Class will hold an open dance. This dance, to which all are invited and urged to attend, will be held at Glorieta Manor on Jan. 8.

All proceeds from the dance, as well as those from the ad-book and boosters, will be donated to a project dear to the Sophs hearts — that of decorating and furnishing the basement of Alumni Hall.

1,550 persons, a sellout crowd, is expected for the opening performance tomorrow evening. Tickets are at a premium for the three performances and an estimated 4,500 are expected to see the show according to Charles Rasmussen, Business Manager.

The Thunderettes will be the laugh provoking characters supporting the charming "Sand" Mehorter, Dolores Ludka, Pauline Scinto, Dick Probst, Saul Goldwasser, Harold Nevins, John Schaffner, Ann Yerontakis, and Larry Bluth.

The phenomenal Thunderettes will do an exhausting routine of 64 yes, count 'em, 64 kicks. And what does it take to be a Thunderette? Fifi (Larry Bluth) says, "Originality, style, flare, it, and guts."

As the house lights dim and the footlights single out each actor, a new story unfolds. "Bring Back the Ziegfeld Days", "Show Boat", and "Little Miss Fill-In" have been past themes of Campus Thunder, and now the glamour and gaiety of Hollywood hits UB.

Dolores Ludka, a sweet, small town girl wins a trip to Hollywood, and there faces not only a new and wondrous career but the teenagers' idol, suave and handsome "Sand" Mehorter. However, Dolores is not the only successful star. Don't underestimate the powers of her prudent, old maid aunt, portrayed by Pauline Scinto, who is corrupted by the lure of Hollywood.

In his year and a half at UB, Saul Goldwasser, portraying a Duke, has aged quite considerably, and really looks well preserved. In three shows he has totaled about 210 years.

Twenty-five original song-and-dance numbers give the spark to the show and, as the final curtain falls, and the first-nighters proceed merrily on their way, echoes resound through the large auditorium. "Campus Thunder, Campus Thunder, show time cry, do or die..."

Baldino CEA President; Other Officers Chosen

Peter Baldino was elected President of the Connecticut Education Association, UB Chapter, for 1953-54. The other officers elected were vice-president, Harold Finke; secretary-treasurer, Sheila Mackenzie; publicity chairman, Peter Lopuch; and program chairman, Norman Pattberg.

Baldino and Claire Waldman represented the Chapter at the meeting of the State Educational Council today at Fairfield University. The remaining committee heads will be chosen at future meetings of the Chapter.

A GOOD IDEA

The population on the UB campus will take a sharp turn upward this weekend, for the grads will once again make their annual pilgrimage back to their Alma Mater for home coming weekend.

In the past years, homecoming weekend has been highlighted by a football game. This year for the first time, the football tradition has been broken. Campus Thunder has swept into the spotlight.

This decision to change the major theme of homecoming has brought much praiseworthy comment from both past and present students at UB. This year, the grads will see another phase of campus activity. Campus Thunder has brought a great deal of prestige to UB, and the grads deserve the opportunity to witness this spectacle once again.

There are many more events at UB that also rate the honor of highlighting the homecoming weekend. It is at least worth suggesting that a different activity be the theme of this big weekend each year. In this way, the Alumni can appreciate more fully our prominent and varied campus activities.

"I had to make it clear to Mr. Frammis that I'm not the part of the show he owns."

Norway Lassie Studies At UB

by Jeanette Pelligono

We often wonder how this vast America looks to someone across the Atlantic.

UB is fortunate in having such an outlook as represented by freshman Karen Loretsen, a native of Oslo, Norway, and a resident of Schiott Hall.

Karen, a blue-eyed eighteen-year-old secretarial major, attended Riis High School in Oslo, and later took commercial courses in a Norwegian business school.

She is in America, and at the University of Bridgeport now, in order to become acquainted with the language, the customs, and the complexity of American civilization.

Her impression of these United States is one of amazement of the vastness and the great diversity of culture represented here.

Norway, on the other hand, has fewer, small colleges, and the cities are small and overcrowded. Norwegians, as a people, believe in more severe habits of work and religion. To appreciate Norway, she contends, one has only to see the lovely durable land itself.

Karen feels that America, however, is a country of great variety, interest, and beauty.

The arrival of Campus Thunder has brought again an air of excitement to the University. The reservation of seats, the hustling for dates, and the planning of parties before the show adds to the fun of an opening night. As always, the backbone of the University, the sororities and the fraternities, are behind Campus Thunder to insure the success it will have.

The ALPHA DELTA OMEGA after Campus Thunder dance, "The First Nighter," will be at Lenny's. ADOites are expecting this year's dance to be the biggest one yet. Alumni from twelve states are to be the guests of honor.

New members of ALPHA GAMMA PHI were feted at a party last Saturday night and at a dinner Sunday afternoon. The new members are Mac MacAlister, Tim Ryan, Lenny Pirro, Joe Augustino, George Stropparo, Fred and Joe DiDomenico, Hans Schneider, and Roland Emery . . . congratulations.

The extension will be the scene of a KAPPA BETA RHO date party this Saturday night. . . the KBR men will also have a cocktail hour at Bob Palmquist's house Sunday. . . who are the four "ladies" who will serve as hostesses for the twenty members?

Tickets are still available for all performances. A Student ticket No. 6 can be exchanged for a reserved seat.

But, enough of the plot. "Mr. D" wouldn't tell any more, and we don't want to spoil it for you.

The DELTA EPSILON BETA party scheduled for next week will have an added twist, says President John Brennan. . . DEB has the reservations for Campus Thunder pretty well in hand.

Making their own homecoming for SIGMA LAMBDA CHI a sure fire hit, the SLXers held a party at the Raven Saturday night.

SIGMA PHI ALPHA's music maker, Howie Marks, was honored at a stag at Maniero's Saturday. . . the reason is the ring on Wistaria Hall's Harriet Robbins. The SPAsers will hold a barn dance for the Alumni tomorrow night.

The Torchlight Ceremony terminated PI OMEGA CHI's pledging season at the statue of P. T. Barnum last Saturday A. M. . . New members who were honored by the Alumni Association by a social at the formal initiation are Mel Miller, Dick Barrett, Ted Brooks, Bernie Milove, Arnie Epstein, Gene Simon, Tony Valentino, Mark Winick, George Chamberlain, and Bill Jarboe. . . congratulations.

Is THETA EPSILON Pres. Peg Daly going to spring that surprise this week?

THETA SIGMA's pledges looked pretty sharp from hats to canes. . . pledging ended with a weekend of social events. The TSers are going enmasse to Campus Thunder and the ADO dance after the show.

HOWLAND'S
A Good Deal For All The Family

With the football season concluded and the final soccer game being played Saturday afternoon, sports at the University of Bridgeport will come to a complete standstill for two weeks.

During this two week lag we would like to unVAIL three previous SCRIBES, those of one and two years ago today, and a special copy dated March 26, 1953.

November 15, 1951.—Joan Reck was editor and Ed Pettit was writing this column. Varsity football was over and done, with the team having won three, lost four, and tied one. . . the basketball team announced its 27, yes, 27 game schedule. . . IM football was entering the playoff round with five teams ready for action. . . and in IM swimming. . . APO perennial winners did it again by trouncing everyone in sight.

November 20, 1952.—Dick Handler in charge, with Carl Weinstein writing the SPORTSCOPE. . . Gus Seamon was all over the headlines, having been elected co-captain of the basketball team and being selected as Mr. IM football. The football team closed out a dismal season by losing to Maryland State and Weinstein was explaining why. . .

Now we come to March 26, 1953. . .

This column was still known as the Sportscope but now it was Al Lepow sitting behind this typewriter. . . at the very bottom of the column was a little box that said. . . PREDICTION DEPARTMENT.

1. Professor William T. DeSiero's fencing team will catch on full blast and will be instituted as a recognized varsity sport in less than one year. . . anyone who has followed UB sports knows how well he came out on this one. . . the fencing team opens its schedule Jan. 9 against the Yale JV.

2. Next season will see the administration relent slightly and reinstate either baseball, swimming, or tennis, and possibly all three. . . the last part of this one came true. . . we now have all three.

3. Construction on the new gymnasium will begin before the end of 1954 and will be unveiled for the 1955-56 basketball season. . . we'll have to wait until April to see how right the bossman was on this one.

4. Track team will win three of its meets this year. . . too bad we only won 2, lost 2, and tied 1.

5. Sigma Phi Alpha will successfully defend their softball and intramural championships. . . they won the softball title but lost to POC for the over all title.

6. Football team will split about even in 1953 schedule. . . the final record is an even 4-4.

7. Brooklyn Dodgers will cop the National League pennant and the World Series. . . they won the pennant, but not the series.

There they are, four out of six right on the nose, two others half right, and the one he missed was very close. Not too bad! Any wonder why the administration promoted him to the job of Director of Public Relations?

Trio Ties 'A' Loop; AC Takes 'B' Title

A single extra point forced the intramural football fraternity league into a 3-way deadlock as POC nosed out SPA 7-6 last Wednesday at Barnum Field. In the independent league, Callahan AC spanked Park Hall 19-0 to end their season undefeated and take their league's championship.

Mel Miller led POC to their victory as he passed to Bernie Frank for all seven points. Paul Ambrose tallied the only SPA T. D. on a 40 yard run back of an interception. The try for the extra point was broken up by Gary Singer.

POC was scheduled to face APO Monday afternoon with the winner to play SPA for the right to meet Callahan for the championship.

Danny Callahan pitched three scoring arials to wrap up the AC's title. Frank Santoro, Pete Carrol, and John Kehoe were on the receiving end of the menace's tosses.

The standings are:

Team	W	L	T
SPA	5-2	Callahan AC	7-0
POC	5-2	Park Hall	6-3
APO	5-2	Milford Hall	5-4
ADO	6-7	Marina Hall	5-5
AGF	0-3	Trumbull Hall	0-7

Kaymen Romp In Final Game

by Mickey Vail

The University of Bridgeport's football team ended its season on a happy note as they trounced Wilkes College 25-14 last Saturday at Kingston, Pa. The win brought the Knights' final record to 4-4 and marked the first time since 1950 that they have turned in a non-losing season. It was also the first time in three years that UB has won two games in a row.

A pass play from Larry Gross to Jim Dudurka gave the Pennsylvanians an early 7-0 lead, but on the succeeding kickoff Dick Ganesello took to the air to even the score. The Knights marched all the way down the field with the payoff coming on a pass to Ray Glatowski. After Wilkes had moved the score to 14-6, Ganesello once again paced the Purple and White as they moved to their second tally, this one on an aerial to Joe Cirone.

Late in the second quarter Tony DiMatteo, a senior playing his last game, scooped up a fumble on the Wilkes 47 and outraced everyone as he scored the first touchdown of his college career. The final Bridgeport marker came early in the third period on another Ganesello to Cirone pass. Ganesello, who sparked the Knights all evening, hit for 11 of 19 arials, five of them to Cirone who now has a total of 36 catches for 526 yards.

Injuries to Three Hurt Basketbatters; Glines Cuts to 24

With less than two weeks remaining before the beginning of the season, coach Herb Glines is having a tough time trying to get his basketball team into shape. The Knights open against the Alumni at the North End Boys Club on Dec. 2.

Stan Silverberg, one of the teams top rebounders, fractured his hand during the second week of practice and will definitely miss the opener and may not be ready until after the Christmas holidays. Red Kleinberg has been out of the scrimmaging for over a week because of illness and Bob Lee's ankles have been giving him some trouble.

Glines has made his first cut, to bring his roster down to 24 men but as yet he has not broken the team up into varsity and junior varsity squads. Another cut is being planned as the mentor is hoping to keep his team down to 20 men.

Because no ruling has been received from the controlling interests of the Bridgeport Armory, the Manhattan game, originally scheduled for Dec. 5 in Bridgeport has been transferred to the Jaspers' home court in Riverdale, N. J. and will be played on the same date.

Booters To Face Fordham In Final Game Of Season

by Don Burke

Saturday afternoon will find the University of Bridgeport's soccer team trying to even their season's record as they take on Fordham University at Seaside Park. The Knights' record now reads 3-4 due to two defeats at the hands of Panzer and Seton Hall last week.

In Saturday's clash Wally Slavkin and Carlos Lares will assume the co-captains duties. Both men are in their final season of play at UB.

Last week found the Knights absorbing two beatings by identical scores, 3-2. In the Panzer encounter the Ubooters led throughout the first half only to have the Jerseyites come fighting back in he final period to take the victory. Mike Belmont scored two more goals in that game to bring his season's total to 10.

Against Seton Hall, McKeon's charges trailed 3-0 until late in the match when they exploded for two quick markers, but the Pirate goaltender staved off the Knights as they took their fourth defeat of the year. Herb Rudolph and Nick D'Alusio scored for the Purple and White.

If the booters can win Saturday they will equal the number of games won by all previous Bridgeport soccer teams and also be the first UB soccer squad that has not turned in a losing season. Slavkin and Lares are the only members of the team that will not return to action next year and McKeon hopes to have a fine record next year.

by Andy Demotse

The week before last, I wrote something that I thought would be taken as a compliment. It wasn't. Most of the people concerned were quite upset about what I wrote. Frankly, I can't see any good reason why they should feel this way.

I'm talking about the bit where I said Schlott Hall was fast becoming the home for many of the lonesome males in school. I even went so far as to call the girls in that dorm pretty. Everyone complained to me that I had no right to insult the girls that way.

INSULT? Do these girls think that calling them pretty is an insult? Do they think the fact that quite a few guys make their homes there is something to hide? As far as I can see, nothing wrong was said, and none of these girls have a legitimate cause for raising the fuss that they did.

Starting with the opening of Campus Thunder tomorrow night, this coming weekend looms as one chuck full of fun-providing activities that everyone can take advantage of. After the initial performance, ADO's party will be held at Lenny's, and SPA's Alumni Dance will take place at Hickory Hill.

Saturday night brings another show, many house parties, and the cast party for the Thunder gang. Sunday afternoon at 3 is the time set for the open house at Wistaria Hall. After the open house, many people will attend the Advisor-Advisee parties to be held in the advisors' homes. If you can't find something to do this weekend there is something the matter with you.

From deep within the confines of hallowed Wistaria Hall comes word of the recent engagement of senior Jane Goldsmith to Bondi Teszler, who is stationed in Washington at this time. (Bondi is in Washington, not Jane. She is still here at school.)

Looking fit as fiddles, Ronnie Miller and Les Sullivan took time off from the Marines to visit some of their old friends here at school last week.

Beth Drexler, a June graduate of UB, has returned to Bridgeport to take a job with the Bridgeport Herald. Beth spent the summer in Europe as a tourist, and has many interesting accounts of present-day conditions in some of the countries she visited.

Conte's, down at the park, looks like a class room during the afternoon when no less than three UB men take to the task of selling hot dogs, hamburgs, sodas, etc. The three are Fred Mills, Joe Kenney, and Russ Schatz. When these three get together, you can be sure that the service will be A-1, so stop down and take a look for yourself.

Mike Stagliano and Paul Hirth took time out from their duties at Fort Dix to visit our campus, and both of the boys were surprised to see how much UB has grown in the short time they have been away. Mike claims there was a time when he knew just about everyone in school, and now he wonders where all the rest of the people came from.

One of the most pleasant people I have ever met is Sally, the woman who works in the Snack Bar during the day. It never seems to bother her when the juke box is on full blast, the kids are milling about looking for seats, and the tables are piled high with dirty dishes. She always has a cheery greeting for everyone, and can be counted on to help clean up if you spill something. My hat is off to you, Sally, and I wish that there were more people like you in this world. It would be a much nicer place to live in.

I was just wondering what it is that makes Jim McKenzie of Marina Hall so happy all the time. I asked Hymie Katz what it was, but Hymie refused to tell me.

From sole to heel, or the other way around, could be the title of a book written by Steve Michaels about his experiences as a shoe salesman in the downtown shopping center. Steve hasn't written such a book yet, but that is only because he is so busy thinking up ways to get out of doing his home work.

Quite a few comments were tossed around about this column last week. The first thing I want to straighten out is that everything was my own personal opinion, and not the opinion of the SCRIBE.

Another thing I want to say is that the column was not meant to be a direct attack at any particular individual or group on the campus. It was merely an attempt to make people realize the situation as it really is, and not as it appears to be.

When it's mild...

wear the water-repellent, nylon-reinforced gaberdine shell alone.

When the temperature drops...

zip the cardigan into the shell for true winter warmth.

For indoor lounging...

use the zip out 100% wool lined front cardigan sweater.
